

Title Page Rubric

Criteria	Level
	1	2	3	4
Title	Title is spelled incorrectly.	Title is too large or is too small to be effective.	Title is an appropriate size and is presented effectively.	Title is an appropriate size and incorporates the theme of the page in its design.
Organization	Page is incomplete.	A large portion of the page has been left blank.	Some space on the page has been left blank.	Space on the page has been used in an efficient and productive manner.
Neatness	Presentation of information is very messy or paper is damaged.	Presentation of information is messy or the paper has folds in it.	Presentation of information is neat and the paper has not been damaged.	Presentation of information is very neat and paper has not been damaged
Images	Only one or two images are included or included images are incomplete.	Three or Four complete images are included.	Five appropriate, detailed, images are included.	Six or more appropriate, detailed images, are included. Images are labelled.
Information	Limited required information, specific to this title page, has been included.	Some of the required information, specific to this title page, has been included.	Most of the required information, specific to this title page, has been included.	All of the required information, specific to this title page, has been included.